

WEDDINGS

MARRIED AT MAUCH CHUNK

Reading Girl Becomes a Bride.
Young People to Live in York.

Claude H. Plank, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Plank, 532 Gordon street, and Miss Ida F. Heller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Heller, 233 North Thirteenth street, were married in Mauch Chunk on Sunday evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wood, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The ring ritual was used.

The bride, who is well known in Reading, was beautifully attired in a heavily embroidered gown of white crepe. She wore a veil of lace caught up with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of Brides' roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by Miss Elsie Hoyer, of this city, who was becomingly gowned in grey crepe and carried a huge bouquet of American Beauty roses. George T. Lye, of Philadelphia, acted as best man to the groom.

Both the bride and groom gave gifts to their attendants. From the bride, Miss Hoyer received a gold friendship circle, set with a diamond. Mr. Plank's gift to Mr. Lye was a gold stick pin. The ceremony was witnessed by only the immediate families and a few friends from this city.

Following the ceremony the couple left for an extensive honeymoon trip to New York, Philadelphia and Washington. They will be at home in York after Saturday, Sept. 12. Mr. Plank, who formerly was a clerk in the Newark Shoe Store in this city, is now manager of the Newark Shoe Store in York. Among the numerous gifts received by the couple was a check of $500 from the father of the groom.

GIETS FURNISH APARTMENT